

Vegetable minestrone

Taline's hearty soup with vegetables, beans, chickpeas and orzo.

25–30 MIN SIMMER

Ingredients

1 onion, chopped

2–3 celery stalks, chopped

2 carrots, chopped

1–2 tbsp olive oil

Salt, to taste

2–3 garlic cloves, minced

Fresh basil and parsley, chopped

A few sun-dried tomatoes, chopped

3–4 tomatoes, chopped

2–3 potatoes, peeled and cubed

Water or vegetable stock, enough to cover the vegetables

1 cup cooked beans

1 cup cooked chickpeas

½–1 cup orzo

Method

Heat the olive oil in a large pot and sauté the onion until softened.

Add the celery, carrots and a little salt. Cook for a few minutes.

Add the garlic, basil, parsley and sun-dried tomatoes. Stir until fragrant.

Add the chopped tomatoes and potatoes and mix well.

Pour in enough water or vegetable stock to cover everything. Cover and simmer until the potatoes are tender, about 15–20 minutes.

Add the cooked beans, chickpeas and orzo. Simmer uncovered until the orzo is cooked, usually 8–10 minutes, stirring occasionally.

Taste, adjust the seasoning and serve warm.
